- The best approach to address negative comments or name-calling is a balance between First Amendment rights and your concerns.
- Stress the importance of a safe atmosphere where everyone is treated with respect.
- Promote the idea that hateful words and images are “un-cool” at your school by:

- Creating deterrents to disrespectful language. Set clear prohibitions against the use of racial and ethnic slurs and pejorative terms relating to ability, appearance, country of origin, home language, religion, sexual orientation or social class. Establish consequences for repeated use and enforce them throughout the school.
